LUCIOLE

Art Cruise

A Painters Paradise in Burgundy

Luciole's art week combines cruising the glorious Nivernais Canal with perfect opportunities to paint.

Burgundy offers stunning scenes, soothed by warm golden light. With splendid architecture and luscious landscapes, it breathes a rustic French atmosphere that translates so well onto canvas.

Novices to experienced painters are welcomed. As are 'non-painters', since our usual visits to historical locations are also offered.

All along the cruise route and at our different night-time moorings, there are scenes and cameos to paint and sketch.

We also visit Dijon's Musée des Beaux Arts and enjoy lunch in the historic Burgundian city.

Art cruise itinerary

Sunday

Rendezvous in Paris and transfer to the Luciole. Captain Francisco welcomes you with a Champagne reception. Time to sketch the dramatic city skyline before dinner.

Monday

Morning cruise to Vincelles along wide stretches of the River Yonne. Perfect landscape painting opportunities. Afternoon visit to Irancy for art and wine tasting.

Tuesday

After breakfast we drive to Dijon to visit the Musée des Beaux Arts. We lunch in the city, before returning to the Luciole and cruising to our evening mooring in Accolay.

Wednesday

Visit to delightful Noyers-sur Serein for market day, so plenty to sketch. Boutique art and craft shops to visit. The cruise in the afternoon is to Mailly-le-Château.

Thursday

Morning cruise past the Saussoir cliffs with opportunities to paint and sketch. Afternoon visit to the hilltop Basilica of Vézelay, a UNESCO heritage site.

Friday

Morning cruise to Clamecy. Our afternoon visit is to the dramatic Chateau of Bazoches. Sketching opportunities are plentiful. Evening farewell 'Captain's Dinner'.

Saturday

Morning departure, arriving in Paris at lunchtime.
